A vintage movie poster for the film 'Johnny Guitar'. The central figure is Joan Crawford, depicted in a stylized, almost comic-book-like illustration. She stands on the left, wearing a bright red long-sleeved shirt, dark blue trousers, and a wide yellow belt with a large buckle. Her hair is styled in a short, wavy brown bob. Behind her, a large, close-up profile of a man's face (Sterling Hayden) is shown, looking towards the right. To the right of the man's face is a large, detailed illustration of a woman's face (Mercedes McCambridge) with voluminous, curly brown hair. The title 'JOHNNY GUITAR' is written in large, bold, yellow letters with a black outline, slanted upwards from left to right. Below the title, the names of the other cast members are listed: 'Avec STERLING HAYDEN · SCOTT BRADY · MERCEDES McCAMBRIDGE · WARD BOND'. A small logo for 'Swashbuckler Films' is visible. Below the names, the text 'en TRUCOLOR' is written in a stylized font. The bottom of the poster features several smaller scenes: on the left, a group of people on horseback; in the center, a man in a blue shirt and jeans running towards the right; and on the right, a building on fire with smoke rising. The overall color palette is dominated by reds, blues, yellows, and browns, typical of mid-20th-century movie posters.
